

Call for Planning Committee Volunteers

Contact:

Maralyn Ellis
905-220332-1494
maralyn@futuresfound.ca

Dear Potential Planning Committee Volunteer,

Following up on the success of our Autism and Employment Conference 2017—It's a Neuro-diverse Universe—Autism Job Club is hosting its 2nd annual conference on November 1-3, 2018.

We are seeking volunteers for the Planning Committee for the conference. The initial meeting will be on Monday, January 22, 2018 from 7-9pm in the library at Robert Bateman High School (5151 New Street, Burlington).

The goals of the meeting are:

- Establish Planning Committee members
- Review the 2017 Conference parameters
- Hold a discussion to clarify the vision for the 2018 Conference and determine a Conference theme
- Determine Sub-Committees required and assign facilitators for each Sub-Committee
- Propose timelines and reporting mechanisms

For more information or to RSVP for January 22nd, contact maralyn@futuresfound.ca or call 905-332-1494.

Regards,

Maralyn + Team

<http://futuresfound.ca>
<http://autismjobclub.ca>

Autism + Employment Conference 2018
Thursday, November 1 to Saturday, November 3, 2018
Check out pictures from the 2017 Conference:
<http://NeurodiverseUniverse.ca>

Autism Job Club has been operating out of Robert Bateman High School in Burlington since the fall of 2015, meeting twice a month to provide professional and peer-to-peer support for youth and young adults on the spectrum with their job search and employment skills. This support network of volunteers, family members and service providers has been working to assist young adults on the spectrum achieve their employment and education goals and have achieved a growing number of employment and education success stories as a direct or indirect result of participation in Autism Job Club!